Why don’t we wear face masks?

We follow the Center for Disease Control and Prevention’s guidelines for blood centers, which do not require masks.

LifeSouth staff must be healthy to report to work and our donors must be healthy to give.

There is a national shortage of face masks which are needed by healthcare professionals caring for COVID-19 patients.

Some LifeSouth staff are wearing masks due to an underlying condition.